PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS

THE DAY'S BUSINESS IN THE HOUSE AND SENATE.

Washington, March 13.—There was a noticeable diminution today of excited discussion over Cuban reciprocity now that the two antagonistic elements are considering a compromise agreement limiting the concession to December, 1903. The leaders on both sides stated that the tendencies were strongly toward an agreement, about the only open question being as to whether the relief should cover one or two sugar crops. Representative Tamm, of Minnesota, says the concession will be necessarily confined to next year's crop as this year's will be harvested and in the hands of the refiners before the measure can be enacted. Chairman Payne has not yet drafted the text of the proposed compromise. The house republicans who oppose reciprocity with Cuba at a conference this afternoon selected a committee consisting of Messrs. Metcalf, of California; Taylor, of Ohio; Dick, of Ohio; Fordney, of Michigan; and Morris, of Minnesota, to meet the committee selected by the friends of reciprocity with a view to compromising the differences between them.

IN THE SENATE.

Washington, March 13.—At the opening of today's session of the senate Mr. Wellington (of Maryland) presented the credentials of Arthur F. Gorman, elected a senator from Maryland for a term of six years beginning on March 4, 1903. They were read and filed.

Mr. Hale (of Maine) presented the conference report upon the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill. The report was agreed to without comment.

In reporting the Hepburn bill for the construction of an isthmian canal without amendment and with a recommendation that it pass, Mr. Morgan (of Alabama) said the report of the committee would be ready in a day or two.

After passing a number of minor bills the senate at 2 o'clock took up the ship subsidy bill and Mr. Berry, of Arkansas, spoke in opposition to it. He denounced it as class legislation, which he believed was contrary to the constitution.

IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, March 13.—The house today after some routine business resumed the consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill.

It was agreed that general debate upon the bill should close in three hours. The annual discussion of the items for additional compensation for special mail facilities between Washington and New Orleans and Kansas City and Newton, Kan., was then inaugurated in a speech by Mr. Crumpacker, of Indiana, in opposition to the special appropriations. The amount of these appropriations was reduced in the present bill from $196,000 to $167,000, because of the abandonment of the subsidy between New York and Washington. During the existence of the subsidy for that portion of the route ($28,000), he said, the cost of carrying the mails for that distance exclusive of the subsidy averaged $3,400 per mile per annum against an average throughout the United States of only $166 per mile.

The Southern railway, which received the subsidy between Washington and New Orleans, he said, now received $660 per mile in regular mail pay, against $335 when the subsidy was inaugurated in 1893. He contended that the road could not afford to withdraw its fast train if the subsidy was withdrawn.

Vienna, March 13.—A dispatch to the Neue Freie Presse from Constantinople today announces that the town of Kyankari, northeast of Angora, in Asia Minor, was destroyed by an earthquake March 12. No details of the disaster had been received. Kyankari had 20,000 inhabitants.

"Resolved, That the secretary of state be, and he is hereby respectfully requested, if not incompatible with the public interests, to inform the house of representatives whether he declined to comply with the request of the said Rev. Hiram W. Thomas, or anyone acting for him, for passports, or to ask the British government for permission for the said Rev. Dr. Thomas and his wife, or to lend his offices to secure through the British ambassador a permit from the British war office for them to visit South African military concentration camps for the purpose of distributing funds raised in the United States for the relief of non-combatant prisoners."

A letter from Secretary Hay was presented by Chairman Hitt, explaining the circumstances of the case.

TIPPS NAME A COMMITTEE

TO REPRESENT THE CLUB AT INDIANAPOLIS.

President Geake Will Head Official Delegation to State Monument Dedication.

The Tippecanoe club, at its meeting Wednesday evening, selected its official representatives for the dedication of the state soldiers' and sailors' monument at Indianapolis, which will occur within a few weeks, and a committee of six was selected for this purpose.

President W. C. Geake was made chairman of the club's representatives and with him upon the committee are Messrs. Charles R. Lane, L. P. Hubbard, Andrew Brosius, Edward Orr and William Kayser. It is probable that a number of other members of the republican club will also be present, but the list above will constitute the official representation at the function.

BYRAN AT THE CAPITOL.

Washington, March 13.—William Jennings Bryan arrived in Washington today from New York, en route to Harrisburg, Pa. The fusion members of the Nebraska delegation in congress took breakfast with him and later he visited the capitol.

At the capitol Mr. Bryan appeared in the members' corridor of the house of representatives and immediately was surrounded by a large crowd of representatives, who gave him a hearty welcome. For some time he held an informal levee, most of the democratic and quite a number of republican members being presented to him.

WILL PRESENT A BANNER.

Grand Master T. D. Neal, Grand Recorder Fred Baker and Editor Walter Legeman, of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, will be in the city next Wednesday for the purpose of presenting a banner to Fort Wayne lodge No. 19, which initiated the greatest number of applicants last year of any of the A. O. U. W. lodges in the state. The banner was formerly held by lodge No. 43, of Evansville. The presentation will be followed by speeches by the visiting officials and others, interspersed with music and refreshments.

STARTS FOR ALASKA.

August Bowser left last evening for Seattle, Wash., where, after the transaction of some business which will require several weeks, he will sail for Alaska, and will make a tour of the Cook's Inlet country in the interest of the Alaska Petroleum company, in which he is a heavy stockholder. It is expected that the property will be extensively developed during the coming summer, and Mr. Bowser will take a complete saw mill equipment north with him to facilitate the work of improving the oil properties there. He will not return to Fort Wayne until fall.

BOSTON STRIKE.

A CONFERENCE HELD TODAY

CIVIC FEDERATION LENDS ITS GOOD OFFICES.

SECRETARY EASLEY THERE

TWENTY THOUSAND MEN ARE STILL IDLE.

Boston, March 13.—With the labor leaders in conference with Secretary Easley, of the Civic federation, with the prospect of a general meeting of representatives of all the leading business interests, at which Mr. Easley should be heard after having learned the workmen's side of the case, and the indications that teaming is to be resumed by some concerns after a tie-up of two days, Boston's strike situation was more hopeful this morning than it has been since the trouble began last Monday morning. Still 21,000 men were numbered among the forces of the strikers and threats that hundreds of others would join the movement were as freely made as at any time this week.

Secretary Easley arrived here early and his conference with the labor representatives was begun at 8 o'clock. Besides the committees of the freight handlers, team drivers and longshoremen's unions, James Duncan, vice president of the American Federation of Labor; John F. O'Sullivan, fourth vice president of the International Typographical union; Frank H. McCarthy, president of the Massachusetts state branch of the A. F. of L., and others, were present at the meeting.

The sitting was behind closed doors and it was announced that nothing would be given out until Mr. Easley was fully in touch with the situation.

SOME SLIGHT CHANGES.

While the general aspect of the strike was much the same as it has been on previous days, there were some slight changes. Until late yesterday, the Brine Transportation company, non-union, was doing principally all the teaming of the city, all other teamsters having been tied up by the sympathetic strike. During yesterday, however, some concerns found that in order to save their contracts with large firms they must undertake to deliver goods or give the business over to the Brine company. This led two of the union teamsters to start out with non-union drivers and today several others followed this action. As those at work yesterday met with no trouble, it led to the hope that operations might be resumed in a limited degree, although it was felt that the presence of non-union men on the teams might cause disturbance in the great army of strikers.

TIED UP INTERURBAN LINE

STORM DID SOME DAMAGE AT HUNTINGTON.

Smokestacks of Southwestern Power House Were Blown Down, and No Cars Are Running.

Traffic upon the Fort Wayne and Southwestern electric line has been completely tied up since 5 o'clock Wednesday evening, when a severe gale at Huntington carried down the smokestacks upon the big power house there. Up to the middle of the afternoon it had been impossible to run cars, but at the general offices in this city it is stated that the company expects to have the line in operation at some time during the day Friday. At frequent intervals during Wednesday afternoon there were terrific though momentary gusts of wind, and it was one of the heaviest of these late Wednesday afternoon that carried away the big smokestacks, badly damaging the roof and portions of the walls of the power house. Comparatively little damage was done inside the building, though the situation made the operation of the engines impossible. Superintendent Williams at once placed a force of twenty-five men at work repairing the damage, but the replacing of the stacks is no small task. When the collapse came there were two cars out on the line between Huntington and Rossaka, and a third just ready to leave this city for Huntington. General Manager Nelson at once ordered the gasoline car out from Huntington to take the passengers from the two stranded cars, but before it arrived the passengers had started for Huntington in wagons, which were hurriedly secured. General Manager Nelson left for Huntington this morning to oversee the work of repairing the damage.

TOLSTOI AGAIN WORSE.

St. Petersburg, March 13.—A sudden change for the worse has taken place in the condition of Count Tolstoi, who has been ill for some time past at Yalta, Crimea. His weakness is more pronounced today and symptoms of pleurisy have developed. His pulse is most feeble and frequently stops. The patient cannot sleep and is in low spirits.

HE MAY SUCCEED HITCHCOCK

CALIFORNIA MAN SPOKE OF FOR CABINET.

W. S. McCormick, of Los Angeles, Will Accept if Secretary of the Interior Resigns.

Los Angeles, Calif., March 13.—William S. McCormick, of Los Angeles, has telegraphed to Senator Thomas Kearns, of Utah, at Washington, that he will accept the position of secretary of the interior in President Roosevelt's cabinet should a vacancy occur through the resignation of Secretary Hitchcock.

McCormick was asked before he left Salt Lake, March 1, if he would take the cabinet portfolio were it offered to him, but would not then make a positive reply. At that time he telegraphed to Washington that his answer would be sent from California, whether he was then bound. Soon after reaching Los Angeles Mr. McCormick received another request for an expression of his sentiment toward acceptance of the high government honor. After further deliberation he has replied that he would accept.

"All that has been done," said Mr. McCormick, "is that Senators Kearns and Millard have asked me whether I would accept the place and I answered that if the president offered it I would accept."

REPORT CONFIRMED.

Washington, March 13.—Senator Millard confirmed the report that he had asked W. S. McCormick if he would accept an appointment as secretary of the interior, but said that in doing so he had acted entirely upon his own responsibility and that he had not assumed to represent the president or any one else. He added that he had heard many rumors that there was to be a vacancy at the head of the interior department and Mr. McCormick being, in his judgment, especially suited for the place, he had asked him if he would accept if the place should be tendered him.

GIRL SENT OVER.

This morning Detective Coling arrested Ethel Miller, a young girl employed by Mrs. Josephine Albers, of East Lewis street, as a domestic. The girl was charged by Mrs. Albers with having stolen a sack from her yesterday. The girl was found at Hunt's place, on Calhoun street, and at 2 o'clock this afternoon pleaded guilty to larceny in Judge Louitt's court. She was fined $10 and costs and was sent to jail. She has been in court several times before, charged with prostitution.

ON AN OLD CHARGE.

Deputy Sheriff Huguenard this forenoon arrested Alfred Keck, of Garrett, on a warrant issued last October. Keck is charged by Isadore Badine with having defrauded him out of some money due him from the sale of a consignment of hay. Keck was taken before Justice France, who continued the case until next week, fixing the bond at $300. Keck remains in custody of the sheriff, but expects to furnish bond some time during the afternoon.

DR. TALMAGE QUITE ILL.

New Orleans, March 13.—Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, who was brought here sick from Mexico in charge of Mrs. Talmage and a physician, was reported today to be only slightly better. He is scarcely able to speak above a whisper. Mrs. Talmage sent out word that unless Mr. Talmage improved very much during the day no attempt will be made to start with him to Washington tonight as was intended.

TAPS IS SOUNDED

A PROMINENT VETERAN ANSWERS DEATH'S SUMMONS.

W. H. MCLELLAND IS NO MORE

WAS A WIDELY KNOWN AND RESPECTED CITIZEN.

HAD SERVED IN CITY COUNCIL

CONNECTED MANY YEARS WITH HARDWARE TRADE.

William H. McClelland, a widely known citizen, prominent in veteran soldier circles, former member of the city council and the board of public works and long connected with the hardware trade in Fort Wayne, died at 7 o'clock this morning at his home, 15 Cass street.

Mr. McClelland had been critically ill for several weeks and his death was not unexpected. He had been suffering for many years from the effects of a stomach trouble contracted during his army service. About ten weeks ago his malady assumed an acute form and Mr. McClelland was compelled to relinquish the duties of his position with the Pfeiffer & Son hardware house. He had been confined to his bed since that time, bravely battling against a disease which, despite the efforts of skilled attendants, gradually brought the patient nearer and nearer the end. Since Monday evening the patient's decline had been especially marked. All day Tuesday and Wednesday he hovered between life and death, and Wednesday evening sank into an unconsciousness which terminated in his death this morning.

Mr. McClelland was 61 years of age in August last. He was born in Miami county, Ohio, August 19, 1840, and at the age of nine years, after the death of his father, he came with his mother to Allen county, making his home for some years near Huntington with the family of Samuel Shryock. A few years later his stepfather purchased a farm near Elletts Green, Kosciusko county, and in this locality the boy grew to manhood.

SERVICE AS A SOLDIER.

August 9, 1862, Mr. McClelland came to Fort Wayne and enlisted as a private in company E, Eighty-eighth Indiana volunteers, then recruiting at old Camp Allen, in this city. Col. C. B. Oakley was the first captain of company E, and when Colonel Oakley was promoted he was succeeded in command by Capt. A. C. Brown, also of this city, and it is noted as a sad coincidence at this time that Captain Brown is lying seriously ill at his home, not more than a square distant from the McClelland residence. Mr. McClelland served his country valiantly through three years of hard fighting to the close of the war, participating in all the activities of his regiment, including the battles of Perryville, Stones River, Chickamauga and Sherman's famous march to the sea, besides a multitude of smaller engagements. Private McClelland rose to the rank of corporal, which he held when mustered out of the service, June 9, 1865. Two of Mr. McClelland's brothers were also in the army, but both died before him, and he was the last member of the family.

Returning to the home at Elletts Green at the close of the war, Mr. McClelland was married at Warsaw, August 19, 1867, to Miss Alice Coons, who survives, together with two children—Samuel W. and Miss Jennie O. McClelland, both of this city.

HELD PUBLIC OFFICE.

Mr. McClelland removed to this city twenty-one years ago and Fort Wayne has been his home continuously since that time. Politically he was a republican, and took an active interest in public affairs. In 1892-3 he served as a member of the city council from the Ninth ward, and under Mayor C. B. Oakley was appointed a member of the board of public works.

During Mr. McClelland's entire period of residence in this city he was actively identified with the hardware trade. He was for sixteen years an employee of Morgan & Beach, remaining with this house until the establishment burned and the firm retired from business. He next entered the employ of J. C. Peters & Co., and remained with their successors, H. Pfeiffer & Son, until failing health a few weeks ago compelled him to retire. He was very widely known by people from every section of the county, and every acquaintance was a friend. His manner was unfailingly pleasant, cordial and genial, his personality attractive and his integrity lofty. His death will be sincerely mourned by hundreds of warm friends aside from his immediate family.

FRATERNAL CONNECTIONS.

Mr. McClelland had been a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows for thirty-five years, having been initiated a member of the lodge at Elletts Green, but on removing to Fort Wayne, transferred his membership to Harmony lodge, No. 19, of which he has since been an active member. He was a past grand in the order and a member of the encampment. He was also a member of General Lawton post, Grand Army of the Republic, and of Encampment No. 51, Union Veteran Legion, in both of which he had been honored by official positions, and was also a member of the First Baptist church.

Funeral services will be held from the residence Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. J. N. Field officiating. The Odd Fellows, G. A. R. and Union Veteran Legion will participate in the service, and a large number of his surviving comrades of Colonel Bryant's Eighty-eighth Indiana regiment will be present, with the members of company E occupying the place of honor. The interment will be at Lindenwood.

MAY SOON CLASH IN BATTLE

JAPAN AND RUSSIA NEARING GREAT CONFLICT.

Englishmen Just From Japan Believe the Hermit Kingdom is Preparing for War.

Seattle, Wash., March 13.—Captain F. H. Smith, a well known Englishman, who arrived here on the Tosa Maru from Japan, declares that war between that country and Russia is soon to come.

W. L. ELKINS, JR., DIED.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 13.—Wm. L. Elkins, Jr., died today at his country home, "Menlo Lodge," near Elkins Station, Pa., a few miles from this city. He was a son of the millionaire traction magnate and was himself prominently identified with many business interests. He was about 38 years of age. Mr. Elkins had been ill since October and was constantly under the care of a physician for a cerebro-spinal trouble. At the time of his death Mr. Elkins was president of the Pennsylvania Iron Works company, the Otto Coke and Chemical company, the Pittsburg Gas and Coke company, the United Coke and Gas company, the Hygeia Hide and Cold Storage company, the McKeesport Gas Improvement company and the New England Gas and Coke company. He was also a director of the Allis-Chalmers company. Mr. Elkins was a well known club man, being a member of the Union League, Philadelphia Racquet, Philadelphia Four-in-Hand, Philadelphia Gun and Huntingdon Valley clubs. Mr. Elkins' widow is the daughter of Col. C. W. Felton, of California.

Attorney W. F. Denny leaves this evening for Indianapolis on a business trip.

RELEASE OF BOER LEADER
KRITZINGER PROPOSED.

London, March 13.—The war secretary, Mr. Brodrick, announced in the house of commons today that he understood that General Methuen, who was captured, severely wounded, by General Delary March 10, had been released and was expected to arrive at Klerkedorp, Southwestern Transvaal, today. The general's condition was favorable.

Mr. Brodrick added that the exchange of General Methuen for Commandant Kritzinger had not been contemplated. The trial of the commandant had been postponed because consideration of the evidence to be presented had not been completed.

Timothy M. Healy (Irish nationalist), anti-nationalist observer, invited the government to show equal magnanimity and release Commandant Kritzinger.

Mr. Brodrick said subsequently that the telegram received did not specifically say that General Methuen had been released, but from the fact that he was in the hands of a British medical officer it was presumed that the general had been released.

STORM DID SOME DAMAGE AT HUNTINGTON.

Smokestacks of Southwestern Power House Were Blown Down, and No Cars Are Running.

Traffic upon the Fort Wayne and Southwestern electric line has been completely tied up since 5 o'clock Wednesday evening, when a severe gale at Huntington carried down the smokestacks upon the big power house there. Up to the middle of the afternoon it had been impossible to run cars, but at the general offices in this city it is stated that the company expects to have the line in operation at some time during the day Friday. At frequent intervals during Wednesday afternoon there were terrific though momentary gusts of wind, and it was one of the heaviest of these late Wednesday afternoon that carried away the big smokestacks, badly damaging the roof and positions of the walls of the power house. Comparatively little damage was done inside the building, though the situation made the operation of the engines impossible. Superintendent Williams at once placed a force of twenty-five men at work repairing the damage, but the replacing of the stacks is no small task.

When the collapse came there were two cars out on the line between Huntington and Boone, and a third just ready to leave this city for Huntington. General Manager Nelson at once ordered the gasoline car out from Huntington to take the passengers from the two stranded cars, but before it arrived the passengers had started for Huntington in wagons, which were hurriedly secured. General Manager Nelson left for Huntington this morning to oversee the work of repairing the damage.

HE MAY SUCCEED HITCHCOCK

CALIFORNIA MAN SPOKE OF FOR CABINET.

W. S. McCormick, of Los Angeles, Will Accept if Secretary of the Interior Resigns.

Los Angeles, Calif., March 13.—William S. McCormick, of Los Angeles, has telegraphed to Senator Thomas Kearns, of Utah, at Washington, that he will accept the position of secretary of the interior if President Roosevelt's cabinet should a vacancy occur through the resignation of Secretary Hitchcock.

McCormick was asked before he left Salt Lake, March 1, if he would take the cabinet portfolio were it offered to him, but would not then make a positive reply. At that time he telegraphed to Washington that his answer would be sent from California, whither he was then bound. Soon after reaching Los Angeles Mr. McCormick received another request for an expression of his sentiment toward acceptance of the high government honor. After further deliberation he has replied that he would accept.

"All that has been done," said Mr. McCormick, "is that Senators Kearns and Millard have asked me whether I would accept the place and I answered that if the president offered it I would accept."

REPORT CONFIRMED.

Washington, March 13.—Senator Millard confirmed the report that he had asked W. S. McCormick if he would accept an appointment as secretary of the interior, but said that in doing so he had acted entirely upon his own responsibility and that he had not assumed to represent the president or any one else. He added that he had heard many rumors that there was to be a vacancy at the head of the interior department and Mr. McCormick being, in his judgment, especially suited for the place, he had asked him if he would accept if the place should be tendered him.

GIRL SENT OVER.

This morning Detective Coling arrested Ethel Miller, a young girl employed by Mrs. Josephine Albers, of East Lewis street, as a domestic. The girl was charged by Mrs. Albers with having stolen a sack from her yesterday. The girl was found at Hunt's place, on Calhoun street, and at 2 o'clock this afternoon pleaded guilty to larceny in Judge Lottitt's court. She was fined $10 and costs and was sent to jail. She has been in court several times before, charged with prostitution.

ON AN OLD CHARGE.

Deputy Sheriff Huguenard this forenoon arrested Alfred Keck, of Garrett, on a warrant issued last October. Keck is charged by Isadore Badine with having defrauded him out of some money due him from the sale of a consignment of hay. Keck was taken before Justice France, who continued the case until next week, fixing the bond at $900. Keck remains in custody of the sheriff, but expects to furnish bond some time during the afternoon.

DR. TALMAGE QUITE ILL.

New Orleans, March 13.—Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, who was brought here sick from Mexico in charge of Mrs. Talmage and a physician, was reported today to be only slightly better. He is scarcely able to speak above a whisper. Mrs. Talmage sent out word that unless Mr. Talmage improved very much during the day no attempt will be made to start with him to Washington tonight as was intended.

TAPS IS SOUNDED

A PROMINENT VETERAN ANSWERS DEATH'S SUMMONS.

W. H. MCLELLAND IS NO MORE

WAS A WIDELY KNOWN AND RESPECTED CITIZEN.

HAD SERVED IN CITY COUNCIL

CONNECTED MANY YEARS WITH HARDWARE TRADE.

William H. McClelland, a widely known citizen, prominent in veteran soldier circles, former member of the city council and the board of public works and long connected with the hardware trade in Fort Wayne, died at 7 o'clock this morning at his home, 15 Cass street.

Mr. McClelland had been critically ill for several weeks and his death was not unexpected. He had been suffering for many years from the effects of a stomach trouble contracted during his army service. About ten weeks ago his malady assumed an acute form and Mr. McClelland was compelled to relinquish the duties of his position with the Pfeiffer & Son hardware house. He had been confined to his bed since that time, bravely battling against a disease which, despite the efforts of skilled attendants, gradually brought the patient nearer and nearer the end. Since Monday evening the patient's decline had been especially marked. All day Tuesday and Wednesday he hovered between life and death, and Wednesday evening sank into an unconsciousness which terminated in his death this morning.

Mr. McClelland was 61 years of age in August last. He was born in Miami county, Ohio, August 19, 1840, and at the age of nine years, after the death of his father, he came with his mother to Allen county, making his home for some years near Huntington with the family of Samuel Shryock. A few years later his stepfather purchased a farm near Elma, Green, Kosciusko county, and in this locality the boy grew to manhood.

SERVICE AS A SOLDIER.

August 9, 1862, Mr. McClelland came to Fort Wayne and enlisted as a private in company E, Eighty-eighth Indiana volunteers, then recruiting at old Camp Allen, in this city. Col. C. B. Oakley was the first captain of company E, and when Colonel Oakley was promoted he was succeeded in command by Capt. A. C. Brown, also of this city, and it is noted as a sad coincidence at this time that Captain Brown is lying seriously ill at his home, not more than a square distant from the McClelland residence. Mr. McClelland served his country valiantly through three years of hard fighting to the close of the war, participating in all the activities of his regiment, including the battles of Perryville, Stones River, Chickamauga and Sherman's famous march to the sea, besides a multitude of smaller engagements. Private McClelland rose to the rank of corporal, which he held when mustered out of the service, June 9, 1865. Two of Mr. McClelland's brothers were also in the army, but both died before him, and he was the last member of the family.

Returning to the home at Elma Green at the close of the war, Mr. McClelland was married at Warsaw, August 10, 1867, to Miss Alice Coons, who survives, together with two children—Samuel W. and Miss Jennie O. McClelland, both of this city.

HELD PUBLIC OFFICE.

Mr. McClelland removed to this city twenty-one years ago and Fort Wayne has been his home continuously since that time. Politically

HE WAS A REPUBLICAN, AND TOOK AN ACTIVE INTEREST IN PUBLIC AFFAIRS.

In 1892-3 he served as a member of the city council from the Ninth ward, and under Mayor C. B. Oakley was appointed a member of the board of public works.

During Mr. McClelland's entire period of residence in this city he was actively identified with the hardware trade. He was for sixteen years an employe of Morgan & Beach, remaining with this house until the establishment burned and the firm retired from business. He next entered the employ of J. C. Peters & Co., and remained with their successors, H. Pfeiffer & Son, until failing health a few weeks ago compelled him to retire. He was very widely known by people from every section of the county, and every acquaintance was a friend. His manner was unfailingly pleasant, cordial and genial, his personality attractive and his integrity lofty. His death will be sincerely mourned by hundreds of warm friends aside from his immediate family.

FRATERNAL CONNECTIONS.

Mr. McClelland had been a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows for thirty-five years, having been initiated a member of the lodge at Elma Green, but on removing to Fort Wayne, transferred his membership to Harmony lodge, No. 19, of which he has since been an active member. He was a past grand in the order and a member of the encampment. He was also a member of General Lawton post, Grand Army of the Republic, and of Encampment No. 51, Union Veteran Legion, in both of which he had been honored by official positions, and was also a member of the First Baptist church. Funeral services will be held from the residence Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. N. Field officiating. The Odd Fellows, G. A. R. and Union Veteran Legion will participate in the service, and a large number of his surviving comrades of Colonel Bryant's Eighty-eighth Indiana regiment will be present, with the members of company E occupying the place of honor. The interment will be at Lindenwood.

MAY SOON CLASH IN BATTLE

JAPAN AND RUSSIA NEARING GREAT CONFLICT.

Englishmen Just From Japan Believe the Hermit Kingdom is Preparing for War.

Seattle, Wash., March 13.—Captain F. H. Smith, a well known Englishman, who arrived here on the Tosa Maru from Japan, declares that war between that country and Russia is soon to come.

W. L. ELKINS, JR., DIED.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 13.—Wm. L. Elkins, Jr., died today at his country home, "Menlo Lodge," near Elkins Station, Pa., a few miles from this city. He was a son of the millionaire traction magnate and was himself prominently identified with many business interests. He was about 38 years of age. Mr. Elkins had been ill since October and was constantly under the care of a physician for a cerebro-spinal trouble. At the time of his death Mr. Elkins was president of the Pennsylvania Iron Works company, the Otto Coke and Chemical company, the Pittsburg Gas and Coke company, the United Coke and Gas company, the Hygeia Hide and Cold Storage company, the McKeesport Gas Improvement company and the New England Gas and Coke company. He was also a director of the Allis-Chalmers company. Mr. Elkins was a well known club man, being a member of the Union League, Philadelphia Racquet, Philadelphia Four-in-Hand, Philadelphia Gun and Huntingdon Valley clubs. Mr. Elkins' widow is the daughter of Col. C. W. Felton, of California.

Attorney W. P. Denny leaves this evening for Indianapolis on a business trip.

METHUEN IS FREE

BRITISH GENERAL GIVEN UP BY THE BOERS.

SO STATED IN THE COMMONS

NO DEFINITE DETAILS OF THE MATTER.

NO EXCHANGE WAS SOUGHT

RELEASE OF BOER LEADER KRITZINGER PROPOSED.

London, March 13.—The war secretary, Mr. Brodrick, announced in the house of commons today that he understood that General Methuen, who was captured, severely wounded, by General Delarey March 10, had been released and was expected to arrive at Klerksdorp, Southwestern Transvaal, today. The general's condition was favorable.

Mr. Brodrick added that the exchange of General Methuen for Commandant Kritzinger had not been contemplated. The trial of the commandant had been postponed because consideration of the evidence to be presented had not been completed. Timothy M. Healy (Irish nationalist), amid nationalist cheers, invited the government to show equal magnanimity and release Commandant Kritzinger.

Mr. Brodrick said subsequently that the telegram received did not specifically say that General Methuen had been released, but from the fact that he was in the hands of a British medical officer it was presumed that the general had been released.

TRUSTING IN GOD

MAJOR HILTON'S SERMON AT BETHANY CHURCH.

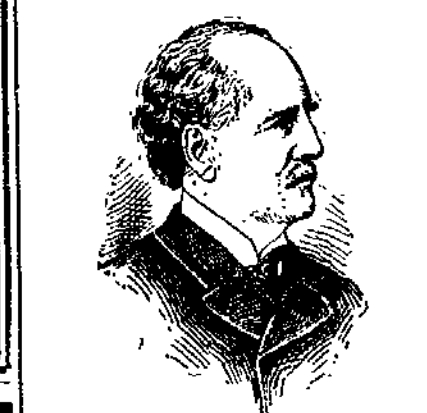

A VERY POINTED DISCOURSE

MANY PERSONS DO NOT TRUST THE LORD COMPLETELY.

MORE FAITH IN HORSESHOE

HOW SOME FOLKS DISCOUNT GOD'S GOODNESS.

Proverbs, III-5: "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart, and lean not unto thine own understanding." The above scriptural injunction was the text of Major Hilton's sermon at Bethany church last night. It was not really a sermon—it was a talk. It was an illustrated lecture and exhortation and bloomed with appropriate illustrations in word painting, drawn with a master hand in fine colors, and bristled with pointed anecdotes cleverly and interestingly told. Since the major's arrival in the city and the commencement of his work it is doubtful whether he has before delivered a sermon or address so pregnant with rhetorical skill and impressive effect as the one he delivered last night, and the pity of it all is that the audience was not nearly commensurate with the quality of the service. The smallness of the audience had no apparent effect upon the zeal of the evangelist and every person who sat under this voice last night went home bettered for having been there. Speaking to the text the major said that the great trouble with most people was that they did not understand how good a fellow the Lord is. More people trust to luck than to God.

EVANGELIST HILTON.

"I have seen people pick up a horseshoe and take it home and hang it up in the front room and worship it like some sacred God. 'It's lucky,' they said. They thought more of the horseshoe than they did of God. The horseshoe would help them out, but they didn't have quite that much faith in God. Did you ever see salt spilled on the table? Oh, my! what a time! Had to do something to dispose of the evil effects of spilling that salt. Had to throw some over your left shoulder and then burn some and do some other foolish things and after that everything would be all right. Sure! Salt is a good thing, but you never thought of trusting to God to settle that overturned salt cellar matter, did you? Now, did you? Of course you didn't! God couldn't help you a bit unless you throw some of it over your left shoulder and put some in the fire.

"Some people won't start out on a journey on Friday. Why? Oh, they'll tell you that it is unlucky. They are superstitious and many such persons are good Christians, too, or they think they are; in fact I think they are in a general way, only they can't trust God on Friday. God is all right with them on Monday, or Saturday, or even Thursday, but not on Friday. Friday is the day when everybody has to look out for himself and God has nothing to do with it. Why, people, did you ever think of the folly of such matters? God is your God on Friday just the same as He is any other day, and He likes you and will care for you on that day just the same as any other if you will only lean on Him and put your trust in Him. Did you ever see a man stop suddenly on the street, stoop down and pick up a pin? I have. I've seen them stop and stoop and pick up the pin and carefully stow it away in the lapel of their coat. Why? Because the point was toward them. Because somebody once said that you must not cross or step over a pin when the point is toward you. Of course, if the pin was pointed in some other direction the Lord would take care of you, but the Lord can't do a thing for you if there happens to be a pin pointed toward you; not in Indiana. I like Indiana and I especially like Fort Wayne, but it looks to me as though the Bible is not intended to govern Indiana in 1902; not if you all keep afraid of pins pointed the wrong way and are afraid of the Lord deserting you on Friday."

The major then related the story of a railroad man in New England who became converted. There was not so much remarkable in that as there was in the fact that the railroad man had a single with his conscience as to whether he should take out his usual run on Sunday. He went to the major, who reasoned with him and told him to consult his own conscience and decide from the promptings he received from that source. The young man finally went to the trainmaster, who was a frightfully profane man and who had no use for church or Christ; he told the official that he would have to either resign his position or be allowed to refrain from work on the Sabbath day. The official was amazed at the absurdity of the proposition, but granted the request and afterwards promoted the man, who since then left the railroad service and when last seen by Major Hilton was a prosperous traveling man enjoying a salary of over $200 a month. "When he came to me for advice," said Major Hilton, "I did not know exactly what to do, so I said 'Let's pray; let's ask God what He thinks about it.' We prayed and then I sent the fellow home and told him to talk the matter over with God and whatever conclusion they arrived at would be all right. It turned out all right, didn't it? He was afraid of his bread and butter, he said, when I first talked to him; he needed his job and didn't like to lose it. I told him I wouldn't serve a God that I couldn't trust for my bread and butter, and I say it to you now. God will take care of you if you trust Him. God is all right, but man is not. If God treated man as man treats God there would be no hope for the most of mankind. God has his eye on us all the time and now let us keep our eye on God for awhile at least." With an interesting anecdote the major then closed one of the most interesting addresses he has delivered during his stay in the city.

There will be services at Bethany church tonight, tomorrow afternoon and tomorrow night, but none Saturday.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

By local application, as they cannot reach diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

GUEST OF THE VANDERBILTS.
Asheville, N. C., March 13.—Lord Pauncefoot arrived here last night and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs.

Baltimore, all of them physicians and all having separate districts of their own.

DANGERS OF PNEUMONIA.
A cold at this time, if neglected, is liable to cause pneumonia, which is so often fatal, and even when the patient has recovered the lungs are weakened, making them peculiarly susceptible to the development of consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar will stop the cough, heal and strengthen the lungs and prevent pneumonia. Sold by Dreier & Bro. and Pellens & Polster.

TRUSTING IN GOD

MAJOR HILTON'S THEME AT BETHANY CHURCH.

A VERY POINTED DISCOURSE

MANY PERSONS DO NOT TRUST
THE LORD COMPLETELY.

MORE FAITH IN HORSESHOE

HOW SOME FOLKS DISCOUNT
GOD'S GOODNESS.

Proverbs, iii-5: "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart, and lean not unto thine own understanding."

The above scriptural injunction was the text of Major Hilton's sermon at Bethany church last night.
It was not really a sermon—it was a talk. It was an illustrated lecture and exhortation and bloomed and blossomed with appropriate illustrations in word painting, drawn with a master hand in fine colors, and brisked with pointed anecdotes cleverly and interestingly told. Since the major's arrival in the city and out his usual run on Sunday. He went to the major, who reasoned with him and told him to consult his own conscience and decide from the promptings he received from that source. The young man finally went to the trammaster, who was a frigidly profane man and who had no use for church or Christ; he told the official that he would have to either resign his position or be allowed to refrain from work on the Sabbath day. The official was amused at the absurdity of the proposition, but granted the request and afterwards promoted the man, who since then left the railroad service and when last seen by Major Hilton was a prosperous traveling man enjoying a salary of over $200 a month.

"When he came to me for advice," said Major Hilton, "I did not know exactly what to do, so I said 'Let's pray; let's ask God what He thinks about it.' We prayed and then I sent the fellow home and told him to talk the matter over with God and whatever conclusion they arrived at would be all right. It turned out all right, didn't it? He was afraid of his bread and butter, he said, when I first talked to him; he needed his job and didn't like to lose it. I told him I wouldn't serve a God that I couldn't trust for my bread and butter, and I say it to you now: God will take care of you if you trust Him.
God is all right, but man is not. If God treated man as man treats God there would be no hope for the most of mankind. God has his eye on us all the time and now let us keep our eye on God for awhile at least." With an interesting anecdote the major then closed one of the most interesting addresses he has delivered during his stay in the city.

There will be services at Bethany church tonight, tomorrow afternoon and tomorrow night, but none Saturday.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube becomes inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and until the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; also cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that is not cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

GOOD WORK.

Providence is sometimes credited with directing the footsteps by so simple a way as the reading of a food advertisement.

A lady out in Shelby, Mo., says, "About two years ago I was compelled to retire from my school teaching because I was completely broken down with nervous prostration."

I suffered agony in my back. My hands and feet would swell up nights. I was in a dreadful nervous condition, irritable, with a dull heavy headache continually, had no appetite and could not digest anything if I tried. I was unable to remember what I read and was, of course, unfit for my work.

Some said I had consumption, others said dropsy. One day, as if by providence, I read the testimonial of a lady whose symptoms were much the same as mine, and she told of how Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food had cured her, so I concluded to try it.

I left off the old fashioned breakfast and began with Grape-Nuts, a little fruit and a cup of Postum Food Coffee. That was 8 months ago and I have steadily improved in both body and mind. Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food has done more for me than all the medicine I have ever taken, and I am now well again and able to return once more to my school duties and able to do anything necessary in my work.

My mind is clearer and my body stronger than ever before. Please do not publish my name." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. weakens the body and degrades the mind. It saps the nervous strength that is the source of all health, and perverts the functions of every organ. Because of its stubborn nature, it is often called incurable. This is not true. There is one medicine that never fails to check the nervous spasms and give new strength to the entire system.

Far out on the bounding billow, with water, water all around, but plenty else to drink, Prince Henry probably is trying to figure out by mathematics as well as philosophy how he came to survive.

The senate committee on inter-oceanic canals has reported in favor of the Nicaragua route and the route will undoubtedly be adopted by the senate. This is a great victory for Senator Morgan, whose strenuous devotion to the Nicaragua route and fierce opposition to the Panama proposition have been uncensured.

It is a pity there is "nothing doing" in this country to which a strenuous man may apply his talents and energies. There's Gen. Fred Funston, for instance. There are no Tagalos to chase, no insurgent leaders to run to ground, no rivers to swim for more than the swimming, no nothing to do but talk. So he wants to hang American citizens who do not agree with the American policy in the Philippines. General Funston's new wife and newer baby do not seem to be equal to their jobs.

The talk that Senator Clark is being seriously considered as a good man to place at the head of the democratic congressional campaign committee, or else for chairman of the national democratic committee, can scarcely be regarded as anything else but idle gossip and rot. Doubtless there are some who would favor Clark, but only for his money. Clark's one idea of politics is that money can accomplish all things and he has unlimited means. To put this wealthy amateur in politics at the head of the democratic organization would be to serve notice that the democratic party is going to set forth on a mission to buy a majority in congress this year and the presidency two years hence. It is enough to have a man like Clark holding a seat in the senate as a democrat, and Montana is sponsor for him and

The pro-Boer advocates in this country should cease troubling their souls over the shipment of American mules for British service in South Africa. The American army mule has time and again proved one of the best allies the doughty burghers in South Africa could have. One of the worst repulses met by General Buller in his disastrous frontal attacks on the Boer position along the Tugela was largely the result of the sturdy refusal of the mules to go forward. Then a stampede followed. One of the factors of General Delarey's late success was the stampede of Methuen's mules. The Missouri mule can be impressed, but he cannot be made to fight.

The influence of the National Civic federation as a factor in the settlement of labor disputes will be given a comprehensive test in the effort now afoot to adjust the big strike in Boston. Over twenty thousand men are on strike and business is tremendously crippled. If the federation can restore peace between the warring interests it will be a great victory. When the conference of capitalists, labor leaders and public men was held in New York a few months ago under auspices of the Civic federation it seemed probable that something would be accomplished tending to put an end to gigantic and costly labor wars in the United States. There was created a committee composed of prominent publicists, capitalists and labor leaders whose functions are to inquire into the matters at issue in all strikes and to adjust the dispute where both employers and employees are willing to submit their causes to arbitration of the committee. The Boston strike is the first conflict of any magnitude that has occurred since the committee was created, and affords a great field for the good offices of that body. It would be a pity, indeed, were the first attempt of the committee to settle an industrial conflict to ensue in failure and it is to be hoped that the trouble in Boston may be satisfactorily adjusted, not only for the good of all immediately concerned, but for the great moral effect it would have in the settlement of future matters of the sort.

A BRACE OF MACS IN COURT

TWO OF A KIND TRIMMED BY JUDGE LOUITT.

One of the Gentlemen Was a Curiosity in the Matter of Togs—
News of the Police.

John McGowan wears a protruding mustache, but has a closely cropped beard, somewhat after the Prince Henry style. Being Irish, Mr. McGowan was not accused of having come over with the prince, but he was accused of being a vagrant of the most typical type. Mac was not dressed in the latest fashion and his beard and other hirsute appendages were not entirely au fait, yet he presented some new and comparatively startling innovations apropos to dress reform. Primarily he was not addicted to the suspender habit and what remained of his trousers was rather precariously installed and Mr. McGowan himself seemed to be bordering on frenzy lest something indecorous should or might happen. The trousers, however, remained true to their trust during court hours. Speaking of the trousers, it might be interesting to know that at one time they bagged at the knees—but that was a long time ago and before the bag retired from active duty. At 8:30 this a. m. Mr. McGowan's left leg was distinctly visible to the naked eye from a point about eight and one-half inches north of the capella to a point bringing into view about seven inches of the pachydermic covering of the tibia. The right leg was less exposed, but the trousers on that side were more demoralized. Most of the trouser end of the raiment on that side was missing, but Mr. McGowan had ingeniously wrapped a newspaper or two, including a copy of The Sentinel, around his leg and protected it in that way from the recent chilling March blasts. Otherwise Mr. McGowan wore nothing to speak of save a tired look. He was arrested yesterday evening by a force of deputies from Sheriff Stout's office, who were sent to a point east of the city where the Nickel Plate road crosses the New Haven highway. It was reported that an attempt to "hold up" a young farmer had been made at that point and an investigation of the report resulted in the bloodless incarceration of Mr. McGowan. He accepted his dose of eleven days in a most stoical manner, meanwhile gazing regretfully on the remnant of his erstwhile pantaloons.

"HIS BEARD NOT AU FAIT."

ANOTHER MAC MULOTED.

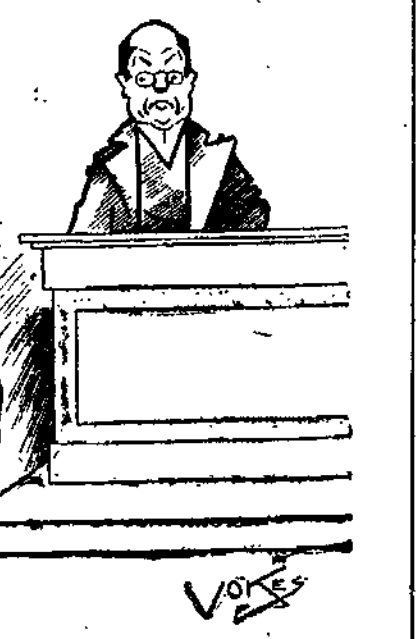

William McCarty was one of the most frank drunks that has made an appearance at police court for many a day. McCarty was arrested last night for being drunk and he cheerfully admitted his guilt. He is a well dressed traveling man, but says he does not know what he is doing in Fort Wayne, because he has no business here. He grew sober as well as confidential as the trial proceeded. He said that he was drunk and incidentally admitted that he was rather glad of it, because he could not remember when he was drunk before with such a happy feeling. He privately confided to a near-by reporter that if he thought he could feel like that all the time he would feel himself arrested every day. When asked to plead to his case in answer to the question as to whether he had been drunk or not, he astonished the court with his candor. "Sure, judge," said he; "been drunk for a week, anyway, and maybe ten days. Couldn't help it and it's all right with me. Anything you do is all right with yours truly." "Well, I'm going to send you to the stone pile for eleven days," said Judge Louitt, "and when you get out you'll be sober and you'll thank me for having sobered you up." Not me! Stone pile! What? Me work! Why, judge, I never worked in my life and you wouldn't start me in now. Look at them lily-white hands, judge, and then look at me, an' then tell me that I've got to go to the workhouse with them! Cut it out, judge; cut it out! But the judge would not cut it out and Mr. McCarty went over with his companion, Mr. McGowan.

POLICE NOTES.
L. C. Griffith, a letter carrier, living in the Feelling block, reports the theft of a basketful of dishes from the hall adjoining his quarters. The Zentner lad, living at the corner of Calhoun and Columbia streets, reported lost yesterday, returned to his home last evening. He had been visiting his grandfather in the country and says he forgot to tell his mother about his intended visit. Mr. Trison, of St. Marys avenue, who reported that his bicycle had been stolen from his yard night before last, last night reported that it had been returned by a friend who was simply playing a joke on him. In making his report Mr. Trison inquired for the address of the fool-killer.

A display sign in front of Stevenson & Archer's dental rooms on Calhoun street was broken last night, supposedly by being overturned by a sharp gust of wind. A peck or so of retired teeth were spilled about the vicinity and the case enclosing the display was broken. The proprietors of the establishment say that they have good reason to believe that the breakage was not the result of accident so much as it was of malicious intent. The matter is being cleared.

A buggy occupied by Carl Diether and a friend was struck by truck 22 of the City Trucking company, driven by Charles Smead, yesterday afternoon and was overturned. The accident occurred at the corner of Beary and Calhoun streets at about 4 o'clock and fortunately had no serious results, although the upset is said by witnesses to have been one of the most spectacular seen in that precinct since the last election.

Officer Tremmel today accommodately delivered the ballot boxes to the various voting precincts, ready for use in the primaries to-morrow.

Eighteen reports of defects in pavements and sidewalks were reported by the night police last night.

Superintendent Gorsline is looking for a lad aged 13, named Harry or Amos Emanuel Parker, whose parents live at Greenville, Mich, and who is supposed to be in this city. He ran away from home nearly a year ago.

A fur bona found on the street can be had by the owner at the police station upon proper identification.

THE PATRICK TRIAL.

New York, March 13.—Assistant District Attorney Osborne resumed the cross-examination of Dr. John H. Girdner today in the trial of Albert T. Patrick, accused of the murder of William M. Rice. Mr. Osborne described the medical history of Rice's case from the prosecution's point of view, and asked the witness if, under the conditions existing at 11 a. m., as told by the attending physician, something must not have intervened to cause Rice's death at 8 o'clock in the evening. "There was quite sufficient evidence of oedema of the lungs at that time," Dr. Girdner replied, "to account for the death without anything intervening." Dr. Alexander G. Leinf, of Philadelphia, an expert in diseases of the lungs, was then called.

WARSHIPS FOR BRITAIN.

London, March 13.—The British admiralty has contracted with various shipbuilding companies for the construction of five first-class and two third-class cruisers and two battleships.

TROOPS TO STOP STRIKES.

Venice, March 13.—Detachments of cavalry left Padua today for the various districts disturbed by the strikes of agricultural laborers. Troopers have also left Ferrara to enforce order in the Coppato district.

Protect Yourself

THE batteries of disease are ever hammering away at the human constitution. Night and day they keep up their pitiless fire. They search out the weak points in the system. Gaining entrance there, they soon spread the siege to all the organs of the body. They have found a ready ally in the anaemic condition of the blood. The constitution has been so weakened by defective circulation that it is unable to resist the relentless foe. Not until the blood has been cleansed of the impurities that make for anaemia, scrofula and other devitalized conditions of the life fluid, can the relentless invader be driven off.

Fortify yourself against these assaults of disease with

LEROUX'S BLOOD REMEDY.

Positively one of Humanity's greatest constitution builders. It is a medicine designated not only to lift the system out of the desponds of disease, but to so strengthen all the organs that they will be able to permanently resist future attacks on the health. It arouses all the dormant energies that the poisoned blood lulled to sleep, stimulates the muscular and nerve tissues and restores a solid feeling of courageous manhood.

TELLING TOLEDO TESTIMONIALS.

To Whom it May Concern—This is to certify that my face was completely covered with eczema. So bad was it at times that I escaped many occasions to be seen. Thousands of people who called at our store and saw me in that terrible condition, and who see me now, are amazed at the wonderful change. To one and all I tell them, after deriving no benefit from all sorts of treatment and remedies, I was persuaded to try Leroux's Blood Remedy. I purchased one bottle at Hamlin's drug store, which convinced me that I was taking the right remedy. Six bottles cured me, after six doctors and everything else had failed.
ROBERT SUSSMAN,
403-405 Adams Street.

Gentlemen—After two years' suffering with eczema on my leg, and having tried many doctors and all the remedies for that disease without effect, I became discouraged. Fortunately your "Blood Remedy" came to my notice. I bought one bottle, and after it was half used I was rejoiced to find the terrible itching had gone, and on using the second bottle it began to heal fast, and the flesh assumed its natural color; the third bottle made a complete cure, which convinced me that it was the real remedy for eczema. I feel it my duty to recommend it to the public in general.

Rheumatism

Omega Oil

Many people believe Rheumatism is a disease of the blood. Perhaps it is, and perhaps it is not. If it is a blood disease, why is it the pain often stays in the same place? Why is it the blood doesn't always carry the disease all over the body and into every muscle and joint? Your doctor may be able to explain it, but it is all guesswork anyhow. Omega Oil is what you ought to use for Rheumatism. It is to be well rubbed on the place where the pain is. No matter whether the trouble is in the blood or not—Omega Oil goes in, finds it out and cures it. What's the odds so long as you get relief? Drink plenty of fresh water every night and morning while using Omega Oil. The water will keep the kidneys well flushed, and will bring about a quicker cure of Rheumatism. Try this plan for two weeks and see the result.

Far out on the bounding billow, with water, water all around, but plenty else to drink, Prince Henry probably is trying to figure out by mathematics as well as philosophy how he came to survive.

The senate committee on inter-oceanic canals has reported in favor of the Nicaragua route and the route will undoubtedly be adopted by the senate. This is a great victory for Senator Morgan, whose strenuous devotion to the Nicaragua route and fierce opposition to the Panama proposition have been unceasing.

It is a pity there is "nothing doing" in this country to which a strenuous man may apply his talents and energies. There's Gen. Fred Funston, for instance. There are no Tagalos to chase, no insurgent leaders to run to ground, no rivers to swim for more than the swimming, no nothing to do but talk. So he wants to hang American citizens who do not agree with the American policy in the Philippines. General Funston's new wife and newer baby do not seem to be equal to their jobs.

The talk that Senator Clark is being seriously considered as a good man to place at the head of the democratic congressional campaign committee or else for chairman of the national democratic committee, can scarcely be regarded as anything else but idle gossip and rot. Doubtless there are some who would favor Clark, but only for his money. Clark's one idea of politics is that money can accomplish all things and he has unlimited means. To put this wealthy amateur in politics at the head of the democratic organization would be to serve notice that the democratic party is going to set forth on a mission to buy a majority in congress this year and the presidency two years hence. It is enough to have a man like Clark holding a seat in the senate as a democrat, but Montana is sponsor for him and should be left alone to maintain the credit of it. The national democratic party can afford to cumber itself with no such load, not even for a huge cash consideration.

The pro-Boer advocates in this country should cease troubling their souls over the shipment of American mules for British service in South Africa. The American army mule has time and again proved one of the best allies the doughty burghers in South Africa could have. One of the worst repulses met by General Buller in his disastrous frontal attacks on the Boer position along the Tugela was largely the result of the sturdy refusal of the mules to go forward. Then a stampede followed. One of the factors of General Delaney's late success was the stampede of Meluon's mules. The Missouri mule can be impressed, but he cannot be made to fight.

The influence of the National Civic federation as a factor in the settlement of labor disputes will be given a comprehensive test in the effort now afoot to adjust the big strike in Boston. Over twenty thousand men are on strike and business is tremendously crippled. If the federation can restore peace between the warring interests it will be a great victory. When the conference of capitalists, labor leaders and public men was held in New York a few months ago under auspices of the Civic federation it seemed probable that something would be accomplished tending to put an end to gigantic and costly labor wars in the United States. There was created a committee composed of prominent publicists, capitalists and labor leaders whose functions are to inquire into the matters at issue in all strikes and to adjust the dispute where both employers and employees are willing to submit their causes to arbitration of the committee. The Boston strike is the first conflict of any magnitude that has occurred since the committee was created, and affords a great field for the good offices of that body. It would be a pity, indeed, were the first attempt of the committee to settle an industrial conflict to ensue in failure and it is to be hoped that the trouble in Boston may be satisfactorily adjusted, not only for the good of all immediately concerned, but for the great moral effect it would have in the settlement of future matters of the sort.

A BRACE OF MACS IN COURT

TWO OF A KIND TRIMMED BY JUDGE LOUITT.

One of the Gentlemen Was a Curiosity in the Matter of Togs—News of the Police.

John McGowan wears a protruding mustache, but has a closely cropped beard, somewhat after the Prince Henry style. Being Irish, Mr. McGowan was not accused of having come over with the prince, but he was accused of being a vagrant of the most typical type. Mac was not dressed in the latest fashion and his beard and other hirsute appendages were not entirely au fait, yet he presented some new and comparatively startling innovations apropos to dress reform. Primarily he was not addicted to the suspender habit and what remained of his trousers was rather precariously installed and Mr. McGowan himself seemed to be bordering on frenzy lest something indecorous should or might happen. The trousers, however, remained true to their trust during court hours. Speaking of the trousers, it might be interesting to know that at one time they bagged at the knees—but that was a long time ago and before the bag retired from active duty. At 8:30 this a. m. Mr. McGowan's left leg was distinctly visible to the naked eye from a point about eight and one-half inches north of the capella to a point bringing into view about seven inches of the pachydermic covering of the tibia. The right leg was less exposed, but the trousers on that side were more demoralized. Most of the trouser end of the raiment on that side was missing, but Mr. McGowan had ingeniously wrapped a newspaper or two, including a copy of The Sentinel, around his leg and protected it in that way from the recent chilling March blasts. Otherwise Mr. McGowan wore nothing to speak of save a tired look. He was arrested yesterday evening by a force of deputies from Sheriff Stout's office, who were sent to a point east of the city where the Nickel Plate road crosses the New Haven highway. It was reported that an attempt to "hold up" a young farmer had been made at that point and an investigation of the report resulted in the bloodless incarceration of Mr. McGowan. He accepted his dose of eleven days in a most stoical manner, meanwhile gazing vegetatively on the remnant of his erstwhile pantaloons.

Another Mac Mulcated. William McCarty was one of the most frank drunks that has made an appearance at police court for many a day. McCarty was arrested last night for being drunk and he cheerfully admitted his guilt. He is a well dressed traveling man, but says he doesn't know what he is doing in Fort Wayne, because he has no business here. He grew sober as well as confidential as the trial proceeded. He said that he was drunk and incidentally admitted that he was rather glad of it, because he could not remember when he was drunk before with such a happy feeling. He privately confided to a near-by reporter that if he thought he could feel like that all the time he would get himself arrested every day. When asked to plead to his case in answer to the question as to whether he had been drunk or not, he astonished the court with his candor. "Sure, judge," said he; "been drunk for a week, any way, and maybe ten days. Couldn't help it and it's all right with me. Anything you do is all right with yours truly." "Well, I'm going to send you to the stone pile for eleven days," said Judge Louitt, "and when you get out you'll be sober and you'll thank me for having sobered you up." "Not me! Stone pile! What? Me work! Why, judge, I never worked in my life and you wouldn't start me in now. Look at them lily-white hands, judge, and then look at me, an' then tell me that I've got to go to the workhouse with them!" "Cut it out, judge, cut it out!" But the judge would not cut it out and Mr. McCarty went over with his companion, Mr. McGowan.

GAVE CIVIL WAR IN DRAMA
NOVEL PRODUCTION BY PUPILS OF ST. AUGUSTINE'S.

Eighth Grade Students Present Historic Tableau in Very Creditable Manner.

The unique entertainment given Tuesday evening by the Eighth grade pupils of St. Augustine's academy was a veritable dramatization of the civil war, and the production was most creditably given in the academy studio, which was tastefully decorated in the national colors, with embellishments of ferns, and a large American flag served as a drop curtain. The entertainment was given in the afternoon for the school children, and was repeated in the evening for their parents and friends who were present in large numbers. The program opened with a duet by the Misses W. Callahan and M. Moran, and the historic tableaux which followed were:

—Act I.—
Scene I.—The Emancipation Bill of 1850: Henry Clay, H. Frank, Calhoun, A. Corcoran, Webster, B. Getz, Seward, M. Lowry, Jefferson Davis, A. Surtis.

Scene II.—A Slave: Venita Dyer.

M. Muhler and I. Hutzler were stage managers, and the patriotic songs and recitations given during the entertainment were very good.

STRIKE GROWS SERIOUS.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 13.—The painters' strike is growing serious on account of the importation of non-union men from other places. Over one hundred men came in yesterday and many more are on their way. The last allotment arrived from Washington, D. C., during the night and was met at the Baltimore and Ohio station by strikers' pickets. Several men were badly beaten before the crowd was scattered by the appearance of the police. President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, and General President Ballhorn, of the Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paper Hangers, are expected here today to settle the trouble, if possible.

GOLFERS KEPT BUSY.

As warmer weather approaches, the golfers are making active preparations for the opening of the season and golf outfits are being overhauled and put in shape for play. The mild weather of the past few days tempted a number of enthusiasts to make a trip to the links and, although the ground was not in the best condition for playing, a few games were pulled off. The grounds in the east end will be put into condition as soon as the weather will permit and a number of members of the club have subscribed liberally for improvements on the links. New members who have recently been added to the rolls are Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Doughman, Miss Louise Bond and C. D. Tillo.

JEALOUS SUITOR MARS RIVAL.

Hartford City, Ind., March 13.—"You'll never win the love of another woman," cried George McDonald yesterday at Dundee, near this city, and drawing a big pocket-knife he slashed it across the right side of the face of Frank Monroe, laying the flesh open to the bone from eye to mouth. McDonald and Monroe have long been bitter rivals, both being in love with Mabel Lockwood, daughter of a well-to-do farmer. Monroe was the girl's favorite suitor, and McDonald, it is claimed, wished to disfigure his rival's handsome countenance. McDonald is under arrest.

EXTORTIONATE MANDARINS.

Canton, March 13.—There is great dissatisfaction here at the extortionate taxes which the mandarin are levying under the pretext of meeting the installments of the Chinese indemnity. The merchants have petitioned the viceroy for redress, asserting that they fear the action of the mandarins will lead to an uprising.

PRIEST REMOVED BY POLICE.

Chicago, March 13.—Father Jeremiah J. Crowley was escorted from Archbishop Feehan's residence last night by two policemen after a wait of eight hours to see the archbishop and demand of him an adjustment of his alleged wrongs. Father Crowley refused to treat with Archbishop Feehan's assistant, Bishop Muldoon, and reiterated a determination to remain in the archbishop's reception-room until he had an audience with the archbishop. Bishop Muldoon finally sent a messenger for the policemen and ordered them to remove Father Crowley. He refused to go and they placed him under arrest. He left the house quietly with them. They released him shortly afterward and he returned to the Sherman house, where he is living.

LAW CONTROLS PRIMARIES

FREEDOM OF ACTIONS AND METHODS RESTRAINED.

Improper Use of Money Before the Nomination Punishable by the Statutes.

Probably there is no fact in the statutes of Indiana of which voters generally are so ignorant as that the laws are plain, specific and severe concerning the use of money or other improper means at primary elections or conventions.

Not because there is any intimation that improper influences are prevailing now or threaten to prevail in the convention next Saturday, but because the provisions of the law on this score ought to be known, the Sentinel calls attention to this matter and herewith appends that section of the election law bearing upon the matter:

An act to secure the purity and freedom of the ballot. In force March 9, 1889.
§ 3231. Burns R. § 3234. Election Bribery.—
"Inability. 1. That whoever hires or buys, directly or indirectly, or handles any money or other means, knowing the same to be used to induce, hire or buy any person to vote or refrain from voting any ticket or for any candidate for any office at any election held pursuant to law, or at any primary election or convention of any political party, then the person so offending in any one of the foregoing particulars, and all other persons aiding, abetting, counselling, encouraging or advising such acts, shall thereby become liable jointly and severally to the person hired, bought or induced to vote or refrain from voting by the means above enumerated, in the sum of three hundred dollars and reasonable attorney's fees for collecting the same in an action to be brought as hereinafter provided on the relation of the voter in whose favor the liability is created by this section.

The State, ex rel. Beedle v. Schoonover. Elections—Statute Constructed.—Penal Statute.—Furniture damaged.—Hires or buys. Election to Vote, etc.—The act approved March 9, 1889, to secure the purity and freedom of the ballot, giving to the voter who has been hired, bought or induced to vote or refrain from voting by the means therein specified, a right of action on the liability thereby created, is constitutional. Such liability is not a debt, but is a penalty for a tortious act, and the act is not in violation of article I, section 37, of the bill of rights, abolishing imprisonment for debts, except in case of fraud.

The ill-fated boat left here at noon Tuesday on her regular trip, carrying a large miscellaneous cargo of freight and a number of passengers. At 2 o'clock yesterday morning, just as the steamer was entering Lake Palmyra, a sudden wind and rain storm of cyclonic proportions came out of the west, catching the Providence broadside on. The little vessel was lifted almost entirely out of the water, her upper works blown away and the hull turned bottom up in forty feet of water. Most of the crew and passengers were asleep at the time and were drowned like rats in a trap. Only nine of the boat's entire company were saved. The property loss will amount to several thousand dollars. Messrs. Cassidy, Scott, Roup and Lancaster were all married men and leave large families. A steamer carrying caskets and divers left here for the scene immediately and will attempt to recover all the bodies.

PRIEST REMOVED BY POLICE.

Chicago, March 13.—Father Jeremiah J. Crowley was escorted from Archbishop Feehan's residence last night by two policemen after a wait of eight hours to see the archbishop and demand of him an adjustment of his alleged wrongs. Father Crowley refused to treat with Archbishop Feehan's assistant, Bishop Muldoon, and reiterated a determination to remain in the archbishop's reception room until he had an audience with the archbishop. Bishop Muldoon finally sent a messenger for the policemen and ordered them to remove Father Crowley. He refused to go and they placed him under arrest. He left the house quietly with them. They released him shortly afterward and he returned to the Sherman house, where he is living.

LAW CONTROLS PRIMARIES

FREEDOM OF ACTIONS AND METHODS RESTRAINED.

Improper Use of Money Before the Nomination Punishable by the Statutes.

Probably there is no fact in the statutes of Indiana which voters generally are so ignorant as that the laws are plain, specific and severe concerning the use of money or other improper means at primary elections or conventions.

Not because there is any intimation that improper influences are prevailing now or threaten to prevail in the convention next Saturday, but because the provisions of the law on this score ought to be known. The Sentinel calls attention to this matter and herewith appends that section of the election law bearing upon the matter:

An act to secure the purity and freedom of the ballot. In force March 9, 1899. Sec. 1. That whoever hires or buys, directly or indirectly, or handles any money or other means, knowing the same to be used to induce, hire or buy any person to vote or refrain from voting any ticket or for any candidate for any office at any election held pursuant to law, or at any primary election or convention of any political party, then the person so offending in any one of the foregoing particulars, and all other persons aiding, abetting, counseling, encouraging or advising such acts, shall thereby become liable jointly and severally to the person hired, bought or induced to vote or refrain from voting by the means enumerated, in the sum of three hundred dollars and reasonable attorney's fees for collecting the same in an action to be brought as hereinafter provided on the relation of the voter in whose favor the liability is created by this section.

The State, ex rel. Beadle v. Schoenover. Election.—Statute Construed.—Penal Statute.—Punitive damages.—Hiring, etc. Election to Vote, etc.—The act approved March 9, 1899, to secure the purity and freedom of the ballot, giving to the voter who has been hired, bought, or induced to vote or refrain from voting, by the means therein specified, a right of action on the liability thereby created, is constitutional. Such liability is not a debt, but is a penalty. A violation of the act is a violation of article 1, section 57, of the bill of rights, abolishing imprisonment for debts, except in case of fraud.

TWENTY LIVES WERE LOST

STEAMBOAT CAPSIZED BY A SUDDEN SQUALL.

Captain, Chief Engineer, a Doctor, a Cotton Seed Buyer and Sixteen Negroes Drowned.

Vicksburg, Miss., March 13.—The steamer Providence, plying between this port and Lake Palmyra, was overturned yesterday morning by a sudden squall at Lone Landing and twenty of her passengers and crew were drowned. The dead:

Capt. William Cassidy, Vicksburg, master.
Charles Roup, Vicksburg, chief engineer.
Clyde Scott, Vicksburg, cotton seed buyer.
Dr. N. A. Lancaster, a prominent physician and planter of the Palmyra neighborhood.

The names of the colored victims follow: George Lambert, Cook; Harrison Gilber, cabin boy; Bettie Hunter, chambermaid; Joe Neal, Ike Lewis, Tom Scott, Whit Burns, six unknown roustabouts, Minnie Taylor, Joe Christian, passenger; Ben Richardson, passenger.

Those rescued were: J. B. Johnson, pilot; Walter Kain, clerk; J. M. Wilkinson, mate; eight negroes. The survivors reached here late yesterday afternoon, coming overland, a distance of about forty miles.

The ill-fated boat left here at noon Tuesday on her regular trip, carrying a large miscellaneous cargo of freight and a number of passengers.

At 2 o'clock yesterday morning, just as the steamer was entering Lake Palmyra, a sudden wind and rain storm of cyclonic proportions came out of the west, catching the Providence broadside. The little vessel was lifted almost entirely out of the water, her upper works blown away and the hull turned bottom up in forty feet of water. Most of the crew and passengers were asleep at the time and were drowned like rats in a trap. Only nine of the boat's entire company were saved. The property loss will amount to several thousand dollars. Messrs. Cassidy, Scott, Roup and Lancaster were all married men and leave large families. A steamer carrying caskets and divers left here for the scene immediately and will attempt to recover all the bodies.

FIND A SLAUGHTER HOUSE

MYSTERY OF THE BEAUMONT

MURDERS SOLVED.

Gang of Colored Women and White

Men Lured Victims for Purpose of Robbing Them.

Beaumont, Texas, March 13.—

Twenty or more strangers reported missing after they had reached Beaumont, are believed to have been murdered by an organized gang of negro women and white men. The band made a regular business of luring, drugging, beating and robbing the victims, whose bodies are now thought to be lying at the bottom of the Neches river, weighed down so that they could not rise.

Mattie Bennett, in jail on a charge of having murdered one of five men found dead in the Neches river, has confessed to Sheriff Landry that she was the head of the gang. She has not admitted any direct complicity in murder, but the officers believe that she will within a short time confess to the murder of one man and perhaps to that of others.

CRIMES WERE ATROCIOUS.

From the confession made by the woman the officers have learned that the plans of the gang were peculiarly atrocious. The victim would be spotted by one of the white men and then lured to the Bennett shanty by one of the negro women. There he would be drugged, and, if necessary, white men were at hand to beat him into unconsciousness. Then he was robbed, and if he proved to be dead his body was thrown into the river.

If he was only unconscious he was dragged to some secluded part of the street and left there for passers to pick up. The confession of the woman led to the arrest of two of her alleged accomplices.

When the victim's groans threatened to attract the attention of outsiders the woman known as "Mary Jane" would hurry to the piano and sing coon songs at the top of her voice to drown his cries.

AFTER OTHER MEMBERS.

The particular part that the white man, "Punch Prim, now under arrest, is alleged to have played, is kept secret by the sheriff till he has gathered in the other members of the gang.

"There were sometimes two and sometimes three women and six or seven men in the gang," says the sheriff. "We have found all of the women and know where about half the men are. We also want to get as many of the living victims as witnesses as possible. There is one man here, or near here, who was robbed of $80 and dragged into the street, where he was found unconscious next morning."

It is the opinion of the sheriff that at least four of the five bodies that have been found in the Neches river were thrown there after knockout drops at the Bennett house had caused murders.

Sheriff Landry has received information that the Houston police have arrested one of his suspects in that city. The man was formerly an employe of the Beaumont iron works, and is suspected of complicity in the murder of Ben Pearson.

HOLD MEMORIAL CAMPFIRE

ANTHONY WAYNE POST WILL

INTRODUCE INNOVATION.

Preparing an Interesting Program for the Evening of Decoration Day.

In addition to the customary Memorial and Decoration day services held in Fort Wayne each year, Anthony Wayne post, Grand Army of the Republic, now has preparations under way for a feature never before introduced in this city, though the custom obtains in many other cities.

This is to be a memorial campfire, and the exercises will be held in the post hall on Friday evening, May 30—the evening of Decoration day. A committee is already at work upon a program for the occasion, and an especial invitation will be issued to the widows and children of former members of the post, as well as to the families of surviving members.

There will be a program of brief reminiscence talks by the veterans, interspersed with music, and through the evening will pervade a spirit of tribute to the memory of the dead soldiers, as well as of gratitude to the living. Announcement will be made in detail as soon as arrangements are complete.

At the regular meeting of the Commercial club this evening Lieutenant Governor Gilbert will give an informal talk on "Legislation in Indiana." Mr. Gilbert is always an entertaining speaker, and his address will surely be both interesting and profitable. A smoker will follow the address.

At the annual meeting of the Visiting Nurse League to be held in the assembly room of the court house at 8 o'clock this evening, in addition to the reports of the visiting nurse and election of officers, brief addresses will be made by physicians.

A CARD.

To the Editor of The Sentinel:

Some anonymous scribbler in last night's issue of The Sentinel undertakes to attack my official career when I was coroner of Allen county. In reply thereto, let me say that on the case of the death of W. H. Lautz, I desire to submit the evidence of Dr. Drayer, the city bacteriologist, as well as the evidence of Dr. W. W. Barnett, the present coroner, who was my deputy at the time, which evidence is on file in the county clerk's office and is as follows:

Morse Harrod, M. D., Coroner.

Inquest on the body of W. H. Lautz, held this 16th day of Dec., 1895.

Upon examination of the medicine labeled BROMIDIA I find chloral hydrate, potassium bromide and hyoscyamus.

The stomach contents measured 24 cc., was reddish in appearance, contained no solid particles. The stomach wall was only slightly reddened. Examination of the stomach contents revealed traces of chloral hydrate and potassium bromide.

The heart microscopically shows a marked degree of fatty degeneration. Tests were also made for the following poisons: Arsenic, strychnia, belladonna, prussic acid, opium and its salts. There was no evidence of poisoning from any of the above named poisons, all tests giving regular results.

(Signed.) L. F. DRAYER, M. D., City Chemist.

Subscribed and sworn to this 16th day of December, 1895.

(Signed.) MORSE HARROD, M. D., Coroner.

State of Indiana, Allen County, Set.

Morse Harrod, M. D., Coroner.

Inquest on the body of W. H. Lautz, held this 16th day of Dec., 1895.

I held post mortem examination; removed stomach, which was somewhat dilated, containing a small quantity of fluid.

The liver much enlarged, projecting to left side five (5) inches. Gall bladder filled to distention, also kidneys, which were normal in size, much congested and heart was dilated, almost normal expounded in transverse diameter, external surface for most part covered with fatty layer, tricuspid valve allowing the passage of three fingers, mitral valve passing two fingers readily. Walls of right side much thinned, measuring 1-8 inch. Left side of heart muscular walls were half their normal thickness from ¼ to ½ inch.

(Signed.) W. W. BARNETT, M. D., Deputy Coroner.

Subscribed and sworn to this 16th day of Dec., 1895.

MORSE HARROD, M. D., Coroner.

From the above it will appear that both doctors found the cause of death to be fatty degeneration of the heart and that I made no mistake in returning the following verdict:

Allen County, State of Indiana, Set.

In the matter of the inquest on the body of W. H. Lautz.

I, Morse Harrod, M. D., coroner of Allen county, in the state of Indiana, after having heard the evidence and examined the body, do find that the deceased came to his death by reason of "fatty degeneration of the heart."

That the true name of the deceased is as above set forth, to-wit: W. H. Lautz.

That at the time of his death he was about 21 years of age; that he was of dark complexion, 5 feet, 6 inches high; that he was dressed in "common underclothes."

Given under my hand and seal this 16th day of Dec., 1895.

(Signed.) MORSE HARROD, Coroner of Allen County.

I was never paid one cent by the father of W. H. Lautz for any cause or reason whatever, nor did I receive directly or indirectly from him or any member of his family one cent, or anything, in my life.

I never told Dr. Barnett that the father of Lautz paid me $150.00, or any sum; I did not tell Dr. Barnett that the father of Lautz promised me $350.00, or any sum, nor did I ever ask Dr. Barnett to go to meet the father of Lautz to collect anything.

I never paid Dr. Drayer, nor did I give him one cent in the Lautz matter; the county paid him for his services in making the stomach analysis.

I invite the most searching scrutiny of my official acts as coroner. The records in the county clerk's office are open to the inspection of the public.

During my absence Dr. Barnett held the post mortem in the case of Mrs. G. Dugan. He was also present at the time of the inquest of Mrs. Hannag Flaig.

(Signed.) MORSE HARROD.

FIND A SLAUGHTER HOUSE

MYSTERY OF THE BEAUMONT MURDERS SOLVED.

Gang of Colored Women and White Men Lured Victims for Purpose of Robbing Them.

Beaumont, Texas, March 13.—Twenty or more strangers reported missing after they had reached Beaumont, are believed to have been murdered by an organized gang of negro women and white men. The band made a regular business of luring, drugging, beating and robbing the victims, whose bodies are now thought to be lying at the bottom of the Neches river, weighed down so that they cannot rise.

Mattie Bennett, in jail on a charge of having murdered one of five men found dead in the Neches river, has confessed to Sheriff Landry that she was the head of the gang. She has not admitted any direct complicity in murder, but the officers believe that she will within a short time confess to the murder of one man and perhaps to that of others.

CRIMES WERE ATROCIOUS.

From the confession made by the woman the officers have learned that the plans of the gang were peculiarly atrocious. The victim would be spotted by one of the white men and then lured to the Bennett shanty by one of the negro women. There he would be drugged, and, if necessary, white men were at hand to beat him into unconsciousness. Then he was robbed, and if he proved to be dead his body was thrown into the river.

If he was only unconscious he was dragged to some secluded part of the street and left there for passers to pick up. The confession of the woman led to the arrest of two of her alleged accomplices.

When the victim's groans threatened to attract the attention of outsiders the woman known as "Mary Jane" would hurry to the piano and sing coon songs at the top of her voice to drown his cries.

AFTER OTHER MEMBERS.

The particular part that the white man, "Punch Prim, now under arrest, is alleged to have played, is kept secret by the sheriff till he has gathered in the other members of the gang.

"There were sometimes two and sometimes three women and six or seven men in the gang," says the sheriff. "We have found all of the women and know where about half the men are. We also want to get as many of the living victims as witnesses as possible. There is one man here, or near here, who was robbed of $80 and dragged into the street, where he was found unconscious next morning."

It is the opinion of the sheriff that at least four of the five bodies that have been found in the Neches river were thrown there after knock-out drops at the Bennett house had caused murders.

Sheriff Landry has received information that the Houston police have arrested one of his suspects in that city. The man was formerly an employee of the Beaumont iron works, and is suspected of complicity in the murder of Ben Pearson.

HOLD MEMORIAL CAMPFIRE

ANTHONY WAYNE POST WILL INTRODUCE INNOVATION.

Preparing an Interesting Program for the Evening of Decoration Day.

In addition to the customary Memorial and Decoration day services held in Fort Wayne each year, Anthony Wayne post, Grand Army of the Republic, now has preparations under way for a feature never before introduced in this city, though the custom obtains in many other cities.

This is to be a memorial campfire, and the exercises will be held in the post hall on Friday evening, May 30—the evening of Decoration day. A committee is already at work upon a program for the occasion, and an especial invitation will be issued to the widows and children of former members of the post, as well as to the families of surviving members.

There will be a program of brief reminiscence talks by the veterans, interspersed with music, and through the evening will pervade a spirit of tribute to the memory of the dead soldiers, as well as of gratitude to the living. Announcement will be made in detail as soon as arrangements are completed.

WILL TALK TONIGHT.

At the regular meeting of the Commercial club this evening Lieutenant Governor Gilbert will give an informal talk on "Legislation in Indiana." Mr. Gilbert is always an entertaining speaker, and his address will surely be both interesting and profitable. A smoker will follow the address.

VISITING NURSE LEAGUE.

At the annual meeting of the Visiting Nurse League to be held in the assembly room of the court house at 8 o'clock this evening, in addition to the reports of the visiting nurse and election of officers, brief addresses will be made by physicians,

A CARD.

To the Editor of The Sentinel:

Some anonymous scribbler in last night's issue of The Sentinel undertakes to attack my official career when I was coroner of Allen county. In reply thereto, let me say that on the case of the death of W. H. Lantz, I desire to submit the evidence of Dr. Drayer, the city bacteriologist, as well as the evidence of Dr. W. W. Barnett, the present coroner, who was my deputy at the time, which evidence is on file in the county clerk's office and is as follows:

State of Indiana, Allen County, Sec. Morse Harrod, M. D., Coroner.

Inquest on the body of W. H. Lantz, held this 16th day of Dec., 1895.

Upon examination of the medicine labeled BROMIDIA I find chloral hydrate, potassium bromide and hyoscyamus.

The stomach contents measured 2½ cc., was reddish in appearance, contained no solid particles. The stomach wall was only slightly reddened. Examination of the stomach contents revealed traces of chloral hydrate and potassium bromide.

The heart microscopically shows a marked degree of fatty degeneration. Tests were also made for the following poisons: Arsenic, strychnia, belladonna, prussic acid, opium and its salts. There was no evidence of poisoning from any of the above named poisons, all tests giving regular results.

(Signed.) L. P. DRAYER, M. D., City Chemist.

Subscribed and sworn to this 10th day of December, 1895. (Signed.) MORSE HARROD, M. D., Coroner.

State of Indiana, Allen County, Sec. Morse Harrod, M. D., Coroner.

Inquest on the body of W. H. Lantz, held this 16th day of Dec., 1895.

I held post mortem examination; removed stomach, which was somewhat dilated, containing a small quantity of fluid.

The liver much enlarged, projecting to left side five (5) inches. Gall bladder filled to distention, also kidneys, which were normal in size, much congested and heart was dilated, almost normal expounded in transverse diameter, external surface for most part covered with fatty layer, tricuspid valve allowing the passage of three fingers, mitral valve passing two fingers readily. Walls of right side much thinned, measuring 1-8 inch. Left side of heart muscular walls were half their normal thickness from ¼ to ½ inch. (Signed.) W. W. BARNETT, M. D., Deputy Coroner.

Subscribed and sworn to this 10th day of Dec., 1895. MORSE HARROD, M. D., Coroner.

From the above it will appear that both doctors found the cause of death to be fatty degeneration of the heart and that I made no mistake in returning the following verdict: Allen County, State of Indiana, Sec. Allen County, State of Indiana, Sec.

In the matter of the inquest on the body of W. H. Lantz.

I, Morse Harrod, M. D., coroner of Allen county, in the state of Indiana, after having heard the evidence and examined the body, do find that the deceased came to his death by reason of "fatty degeneration of the heart."

That the true name of the deceased is as above set forth, to wit: W. H. Lantz.

That at the time of his death he was about 21 years of age; that he was of dark complexion, 5 feet, 0 inches high; that he was dressed in "common underclothes."

Given under my hand and seal this 16th day of Dec., 1895. (Signed.) MORSE HARROD, Coroner of Allen County.

I was never paid one cent by the father of W. H. Lantz for any cause or reason whatever, nor did I receive directly or indirectly from him or any member of his family one cent, or anything, in my life.

I never told Dr. Barnett that the father of Lantz paid me $150.00, or any sum; I did not tell Dr. Barnett that the father of Lantz promised me $350.00, or any sum, nor did I ever ask Dr. Barnett to go to meet the father of Lantz to collect anything.

I never paid Dr. Drayer, nor did I give him one cent in the Lantz matter; the county paid him for his services in making the stomach analysis.

I invite the most searching scrutiny of my official acts as coroner. The records in the county clerk's office are open to the inspection of the public.

During my absence Dr. Barnett held the post mortem in the case of Mrs. G. Dugan. He was also present at the time of the inquest of Mrs. Manning Flaig.

(Signed.) Morse Harrod.

At the annual meeting of the Visiting Nurse League to be held in the assembly room of the court house at 8 o'clock this evening, in addition to the reports of the visiting nurse and election of officers, brief addresses will be made by physicians, ministers and others acquainted with the work that has been done. The exercises will be interspersed with good music and the public is cordially invited.
